

Mountain Ministries Ranch

Mountain Ministries, located in Rose Valley, has a very successful one year residential treatment program for those that have trouble with substance abuse. Their treatment involves a Christian discipleship program that is totally voluntary with strict guidelines of Christian principles that emphasizes a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, Biblical counseling, learning basic life skills and acquiring job training. We began supporting them in 2006.

For further information visit Mountain Ministries Ranch at their website at www.mountainministriesranch.com